

Reverend Edward BARALEMWA

Edward has a Bachelor of Divinity degree and other qualifications in Theology and HIV/AIDS Counselling. He works for the Pan African Christian AIDS Network as Executive Secretary.

He has extensive experience sensitizing churches and organizations to HIV/AIDS. He plays a significant role in lending support to religious leaders living with HIV/AIDS. He has presented several papers on Christian strategies and interventions to HIV/AIDS with the aim to create awareness and inspire a positive response to people infected or affected by the virus.

Edward's strength lies in advocacy and facilitation of training for counselors. His background in mobilizing communities and nations on HIV/AIDS stand out among his competencies. These qualities make him an asset to the Secure the Future Technical Assistance Programme (STFTAP).
