

Mr Tihaloganyo KAISARA

Mr T. Kaisara holds a Bachelors degree in Social Sciences with majors in Economics and Statistics.

He has garnered experience in training Monitoring and Evaluation of health programs, programme management and occupational safety and health. He has also conducted research assignments in health, development and policy issues and gained experience working with government as an Economist, PMTCT data manager and an M&E Specialist for the BMSF/Secure The Future CBTSP.

He has also worked for UNDP-Botswana as a Programme Associate and is currently a Project Consultant for the Bobonong Community Home Based Care Trust, supported by the BMSF/STF programme.

His main responsibilities are strengthening coordination and monitoring of projects for sustainability. He has co-authored and written publications pertaining to HIV/AIDS – testing, medication, demographics of infections and community involvement.

Carlos' training and experience in monitoring and evaluation are valuable the STFTAP.