

Dr Jean Mukendi Kabengele

Jean is a medical doctor and holds a diploma in public health. He is employed by the Botswana Harvard Institute of Public Health HIV/AIDS Program. He provides clinical care to HIV patients as well as didactic training in HIV fundamental care to health-workers.

His main turf is training. He has published material titled, "Successful Introduction of Routine HIV Testing to Scale up Care to HIV Patients". He is also a member of the international Aids Society.

He brings to the STFTAP experience in establishment of an ARV site and ability to develop an HIV curriculum.