

Mr Dumisani MNISI

Dumisani holds a Masters in International Child Welfare (Policy and Planning). He is CEO of Save The Children Swaziland. He also holds a Board position at the Coordination Assembly of NGOs.

His key competencies include child rights programming, rural development dynamics, OVC programming, community system strengthening including lobbying and advocacy.

He has written a thesis of Sexual Abuse in Swaziland.

Dumisani's interest in group dynamics makes him well-suited to a position in engaging the government and community stakeholders on the STFTAP.
