

Prof/Dr Joe Harrison PITT

Joe has a PhD. He is CEO of Pitt Education and Training Services. He consults on a wide variety of aspects of management, including Programme Development, Training and Development Practice programmes and Human Resources. He also services the Small and Medium and Micro Enterprise (SMME) sector on new venture creation.

Joe is well-versed on the application of National Qualifications Framework (NQF) and Outcomes-Based Education and Training. He is experienced in Monitoring and Evaluation. He is also a coach and mentor.

He worked as editor of a tertiary institution publication for almost a decade and has written English grammar set work for high school grades 7 to 10. He is a member of a number of professional associations on education and linguistics.

His knowledge and experience on all aspects of training - programme development, implementation, monitoring and evaluation, assessment and moderation, makes him a valuable member of to the STFTAP