

Mrs Nomvuyo Shongwe

Nomvuyo is a registered professional nurse – midwife with a BA degree in Nursing Sciences. Her experience in the health field is 28yrs having worked for the Government of Swaziland, NGO 's and The World Health Organization local office. She is currently employed as Nurse Manager by the Bristol-Myers Squibb Baylor College of Medicine Children's Center of Excellence in Swaziland.

Nomvuyo is responsible for both management and administration. She also assumes other roles in clinical services and is the Foundation's community liaison person. She communicates with people at various levels.

A member of the Nursing Council, Nomvuyo would benefit the STFTAP in stakeholder relations.