

Ms. Nomusa SITHOLE

Nomusa is a registered nurse qualified in various aspects of nursing that include community health work, primary health care and psychiatric nursing. She is Programme Manager: Home Based Care/ Community Health Work, for the South African Department of Health.

Nomusa facilitates training for community health workers in a number of communities. She also consults on home based care.

She is a competent trainer. She facilitates training for leaders of community projects.

Nomusa's background makes her an ideal fit in training and community mobilization on the STFTAP.