

Mrs Nompumelelo Zwane

Nompumelelo has a BA in Nursing and several certificates in health care. She is founder member and Executive Director of Mpilonhle Project, an organization which provides support to HIV/AIDS affected people.

She is responsible for the overall running of the project. She also serves as community advisor in a local research programme.

Nompumelelo has accumulated vast experience in training, project management, community development and research. She has facilitated the formation of several home based care organizations run by women.

She is a member of nursing associations. She has highly developed skills in community and primary health care and is a welcome participant on the STFTAP.