

Mrs Nogolite Marygold Qayiya

Marygold holds an NPTC diploma. She works as aftercare coordinator at Grandparents Against Poverty and Aids (GAPA). Her responsibilities include story-telling and coordinating games for children on the aftercare programme. She also translates story books.

Marygold is a competent dance and music teacher. Her ability to speak the main languages in her region enable her to reach all her subjects at a meaningful level.

Her experience working with children infected or affected by HIV/AIDS makes her a significant participant on the STFTAP.
